

NSA – Photo Release

Owner's Name: _____

Address of Building: _____

Photos submitted: _____

The National Slate Association is hereby granted a perpetual, royalty free license to distribute, publicly display, crop and/or edit, scan and/or reproduce a photo of the building referenced above on the NSA website, for the sole purpose of illustrating a particular style of slate roofing. The building will not be identified, and no name or address will be provided. A photo credit will be given to identify the person or company that provided the photo. By submitting this photograph, I warrant that I am the author or authorized by the author of this photograph to grant this license. I hereby indemnify the National Slate Association for any and all costs incurred in association with any dispute including but not limited to controversies, disputes, or lawsuits arising out of the posting of this license and posting of the submitted photograph on the NSA website. Descriptive information will accompany the photo, including specifications of the slate, the geographical region where the slate was quarried, and other relevant information about the slate installation as provided in The NSA Photo Gallery Project Submission Form.

Signature: _____

Print name: _____

Date: _____